

Recommended African films for your ASAP Harvest of Hope event

Music by Prudence. 33 minutes

Oscar winning Zimbabwean film in 2010 for the best documentary, Music by Prudence tells the heartwarming story of a young girl born with a disability. This is a true story of her mother's struggle to keep her alive to overcome both stigma and physical challenges to form a band that made beautiful music and sent a beautiful message. Click here.

Seasons of a Life

Malawian actress Silvia Tapiwa Gwaza won the award for best supporting actress at the 2010 African Movie Academy Awards for her role in Season of a Life - a moving drama about an orphan that rises above all odds to reclaim what is rightfully hers. The award winning soundtrack is also inspirational and beautiful. Click here.

Blood Diamonds: 143 minutes

This blockbuster hit movie, starring Leonardo DiCaprio, is particularly relevant given the discovery of Diamonds near Mutare, Zimbabwe recently and all the corruption involved with this, in the vicinity of ASAP's office. click here

Lost Boys of Sudan; 87 minutes

This film does an excellent job of depicting the trials and struggles experienced by those immigrating to the US from Africa. Click here.

Flame

Shot in Zimbabwe with an entirely Zimbabwean cast, the film is based on the accounts of women who joined the liberation war between 1972 and 1980. Click here

Kare kare Zvako: Mother's Day – “short”

A moving, thought-provoking movie. Click here.

Sharing Day 17 min.

A heart-warming story of hope, Sharing Day is a musical short film about Mainini, a rural woman whose burden of taking care of Tabitha, a sick AIDS orphan left to by her sister is eventually shared by the community. Click here.

Everyone's Child 90 min

Through the tragic story of one Zimbabwean family devastated by AIDS, the film challenges Africans to reaffirm their tradition that an orphan becomes "Everyone's Child." Click here.

Yellow Card

Filmed in Zimbabwe, Yellow Card is a fast-paced, funny and touching story of teenage love, lust for life, laughter and a passion for football; the tale of one boy's dream to achieve. Click here.

Neria

Neria is the story of an African woman living in Zimbabwe who loses her husband and the trials she faces to keep her farm, and elements of her former life. The soundtrack by Oliver, (tuku) Mtukudzi adds immensely to the feel of the movie. Click here.

On a completely different note:

Food Inc. 94 minutes

Food, Inc. lifts the veil on our nation's food industry. We have bigger-breasted chickens, the perfect pork chop, herbicide-resistant soybean seeds, even tomatoes that won't go bad, but at what cost? Food Inc. is a tastefully presented move that presents the facts and inspires action. This is a worldwide problem and directly affects food production in all countries including Sub Saharan Africa. click here

We welcome your additions and suggestions. Please email to: info@asapafrika.org